

CAMPUS BOUND

PREMIER COLLEGE ADMISSIONS
and FINANCIAL AID SERVICES

Jesuit Colleges and Universities

The Jesuits, an order of Roman Catholic clergy, are known for their influence on and interest in education. The following schools are members of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities.

Boston College (MA)	John Carroll U. (OH)	San Francisco, U. of (CA)
Canisius College (NY)	Le Moyne College (NY)	Santa Clara U. (CA)
Creighton University (NE)	Loyola College (MD)	Scranton, U. of (PA)
Detroit Mercy, U. of (MI)	Loyola Marymount U. (CA)	Seattle University (WA)
Fairfield University (CT)	Loyola University (IL)	Spring Hill College (AL)
Fordham University (NY)	Loyola University (LA)	St. Joseph's U. (PA)
Georgetown U. (DC)	Marquette University (WI)	St. Louis University (MO)
Gonzaga University (WA)	Regis College (CO)	St. Peter's College (NJ)
Holy Cross, C. of the (MA)	Rockhurst University (MO)	Wheeling Jesuit U. (WV)
		Xavier University (OH)

Private Colleges with the Highest Percentage of Jewish Students

These are the percentages of Jewish students at private colleges and universities:

Yeshiva University—94%	Pennsylvania, U. of—31%	Yale University—23%
Brandeis University—62%	Harvard University—30%	Long Island U.—22%
Barnard College—44%	Oberlin College—27%	Cornell University—22%
Emory University—33%	Washington U.—27%	New York University—21%
Pratt Institute—32%	Tulane University—25%	Syracuse University—20%
Hartford, U. of—32%	Brown University—25%	Denver, U. of—20%
George Wash. U.—32%	Columbia University—25%	Rochester, U. of—20%
Tufts University—32%	Northwestern U.—25%	